

California Biodiversity Council

Climate Change in California

Oct 4, 2007

Draft Agenda (current as of Sept. 25)

8:30 – 9:30 General Business Meeting

1. Council Announcements – focus on climate workshops/conferences
2. Reports on CBC Projects
 - Biodiversity Along the Border Committee
(Todd Ferrara, California Resources Agency)
 - OHV Projects
(Nina Gordon, California Department of Parks and Recreation)
 - Report on Field Tour

9:30 – 10:30 An overview of climate change work in California

1. An overview of the climate change program in California
(Andrew Altevoigt, CalEPA) (15 minutes)
2. Implementation of AB 32
(Chuck Shulock, Air Resources Board) (15 minutes)
3. Natural Resources Programs under AB 32
 - Water and Water Management (Maury Roos, DWR)
 - Forestry (Crawford Tuttle, CAL FIRE)

10:30 – 11:00 Break

11:00 – Noon Coordination of science to support public land managers with climate change

1. Perspectives on the roles for climate change science for land managers and introduction to the panel discussion. (Tony Brunello, moderator, California Resources Agency)

2. Panel discussion – roles and the need for science coordination by land managers
 - John Donnelly – California Wildlife Conservation Board
 - David Graber – National Park Service
 - Darla Guenzler – California Council of Land Trusts
3. Roles for the California Council on Science and Technology
(Susan Hackwood, CCST)
4. Proposal for the CBC – Rick Rayburn and Tony Brunello

Noon – 1:00 Lunch

1:00 – 2:30 Opportunities for all agencies can play to address climate change issues.

1. An overview of climate change programs and opportunities in California
(Andrew Altevogt) (15 minutes)
2. The California Climate Action Registry
(Robyn Camp) (15 minutes)
3. Member case studies
 - National Park Service (Jon Jarvis)
 - Department of Parks and Recreation (Ruth Coleman)
 - California Coastal Conservancy (Sam Schuchat)
 - The Forest Service (Mark Nechodom)
 - Institute for Local Government (Steve Sanders)
4. Questions/Answers and Discussion

2:30 Close and Next Steps (Mike and Mike)